

GIBSON FINE ART

Kari Duke

About the Artist:

Kari Duke lives in Edmonton, Alberta, in a small community surrounded by alleys all reflecting an untouched and at times over-grown environment. "I find the reflections in the puddles after a heavy rain or the play of light on the old fences to be an exciting subject."

"The naked trees in the winter, the deep snow and simplicity of the old back-alleys in changing seasons is what draws me in." Kari's work is portrayed by many as romantic or reminding people of a "simpler time". The Canadian icon aspect of her work speaks to those not only in Alberta but all across Canada.
