LIVES & WORKS IN CALGARY

ABOUT

Neepin Auger is an acclaimed Cree artist whose vibrant paintings weave together storytelling, culture, and memory through a richly expressive visual language. Drawing inspiration from her heritage, family, and the enduring spirit of the land, Auger creates luminous works filled with movement, contrast, and emotional resonance. Her compositions are distinguished by striking silhouettes, energetic colour palettes, and a masterful balance between simplicity and depth.

Working with a minimal yet deeply evocative approach to line and form, Auger's paintings unfold like visual song pieces — rhythmic narratives that celebrate tradition, connection, and the timeless beauty of Indigenous storytelling. Her work captures fleeting moments of tenderness and strength while remaining grounded in themes of culture, ancestry, and belonging.

Both contemporary and timeless, Auger's paintings invite viewers into dreamlike tableaux where folklore, landscape, and spirit coexist. Through bold design and soulful expression, she creates works that are at once deeply personal and universally felt, offering a poetic reflection on identity, memory, and the enduring magic of shared stories.
